MOTION BY SUPERVISOR YVONNE BRATHWAITE BURKE

September 9, 2003

On September 17-18, 2003, Mayor James K. Hahn will be hosting Los Angeles's first Homeland Security Leadership Summit: Leading the Way in Homeland Security. The aim of this summit is to provide leaders at all levels of government and in the private sector an opportunity to gain critical knowledge needed for effective decision-making in an era of new threats to our homeland. I am certain that this conference will lead to new solutions as we face the challenge of adapting to the evolving terrorist threat. It is the Mayor's hope that the Board of Supervisors will participate in this effort.

As a part of this event, the Mayor will have a reception at the Walt Disney Concert Hall. The Mayor is expecting 250 prominent attendees from both national and local government and the private sector.

On behalf of the City of Los Angeles, the Mayor is requesting that the Board of Supervisors waive all rental and parking fees for the use of the Walt Disney Concert Hall on the date of September 17, 2003 from 6:00pm to 9:00pm.
